

College Hill: Vacancy to Vibrancy Workshop I
Tuesday, October 22, 2019 | 6:00 to 8:00 pm
Grace Hill Settlement House
2125 Bissell Street
St. Louis, MO 63107

Meeting Purpose

- Have a conversation about the history and present-day conditions of vacancy in St. Louis and the College Hill neighborhood, and gather priorities for positive neighborhood change;
- Share information about Green City Coalition and partner support and resources; and
- Conduct mapping exercise to identify assets, challenges, and potential locations for green space amenities.

Meeting Agenda

| | |
|---------|---|
| 6:00 pm | Welcome and Introduction – Alders Bosley, Collins-Muhammad and Middlebrook |
| 6:05 pm | Partner Introductions – Green City Coalition and Emerging Wisdom |
| 6:10 pm | Overview of Meeting Agenda and Outcomes Participant Introductions (Name, length of time in College Hill, favorite St. Louis green space) |
| 6:25 pm | Overview Presentation: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Vacancy in St. Louis and College Hill▪ Efforts to Address Vacancy▪ Vacancy and Green Space Projects in Other Neighborhoods |
| 6:45 pm | Orientation to Neighborhood Mapping |
| 6:55 pm | Small Group Mapping and Conversations and Report Out: Assets and Challenges |
| 7:15 pm | Small Group Mapping and Conversations and Report Out: Green Space Opportunities |
| 7:45 pm | One-Word Vision Description |
| 7:50 pm | Neighborhood Planning in St. Louis |
| 7:55 pm | Next Steps and Adjourn |

Roles

- Participants: participate fully; ask genuine questions for understanding; and share perspectives and concerns openly.
- Facilitator: guide meeting process; encourage participation; ask probing questions; and summarize meeting.

Norms

- All participate, no one dominates
- One speaker at a time
- Listen actively for understanding
- Mute cell phones, minimize interruptions
- Enjoy the journey!